

THE DAILY APPEAL

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 11, 1857.

COL. F. G. LEE'S

HENRY CO. & C. G. LEE, an eloquent exponent of the Democratic creed, will address the citizens of Memphis to-night at Exchange Hall. Persons of all parties are invited to attend. He who fails to attend will miss one of the best speeches of the century.

MISSING.

The first and second volumes of the WEEKLY APPEAL are missing from our office. They are of incalculable value to us, and worth but little to any one else. Those having them in possession, will do a great favor by returning them.

All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers, as they are not authorized to sell them. An observance of this request will greatly oblige the publishers.

PERSONAL. — Gov. J. J. McRae and Hon. C. P. Smith, of Miss., are present in the city.

The Grand Jury adjourned on Saturday last.

See the advertisement in another column of Notice to Brick-Makers.

Dr. Casson, U. S. Mail Agent, has our thanks for late Louisville papers.

RECOVERED. — The body of young Hancock, who was drowned in the Mississippi river on Friday evening, was recovered by Mr. Rice, residing at Fort Pickering, on Sunday.

Mr. ANCHER, of the Northern, and Mr. TEMPLE, of the Ben Franklin, have placed us under obligations for late Louisville and New Orleans papers.

LOST. — A lady lost a fine gold Breast Pin yesterday somewhere in the city. She thinks it was dropped on Main street. The finder will please leave the same with the office and the owner.

On Saturday last the Grand Jury returned a true bill against James A. Hartness for perjury in the Hoxton case. The accused did not make his appearance, and the Court took a verdict against him and his securities.

The candidates for the Legislature will speak at Nashville Springs, next Saturday, or the 25th inst. An abundant dinner will be served up on the occasion. Citizens of Memphis can go out on the railroad and return the same evening. A large crowd may be expected.

It has been requested to call the attention of the City Council to the fact that in a few days' time the appearance of the Hooker and Ladd Company will have to be removed from the New 4th Engine House, and that they have no place to put it. It is an anomaly that some suitable place should be obtained for this active company, and that none is found.

The alarm of fire, about six o'clock last evening, was occasioned by the burning of a paper in the house occupied by Mrs. PEPPER, situated on Court street, opposite the Congregationalist Presbyterian Church. The flames communicated so well to the wood work in the building, but were soon extinguished. The loss was considerable. The house is owned by Mr. PLUMMER.

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG. — In the Criminal Court, yesterday morning, Judge KIRKMAN passed sentence of death upon REEVES, (a slave), for the murder of his master, master in the first degree. He was sentenced to be hung on the 14th of August.

In this case, as well as in that of REEVES, sentence to be hung on the same day, appeals have been taken, and both cases will be brought before the Supreme Court in April.

BUR. JOURNAL. — CHARGE OF ARGUMENT.

We understand that the appointment for Governor of Tennessee will be made on Saturday, but have changed to October, owing to the fact that the candidates for Congress are apportioned at Somerville on that day. So the citizens of Tennessee will have an opportunity on Saturday next to hear Gov. Johnson discuss the political topics in his usual original and forcible style. The announcement will be sufficient to attract a large crowd.

SPAKING AT HOLLY SPRINGS. — The Cleve and Plaider is jubilant at the agricultural prospects in Ohio. It says:

"The chief topics in which every person speaks are the wealth of the State and the Ohio Valley, speak of the coming crop of corn, potato, and indeed of all vegetables, from Potomac, and as far west as the Mississippi River. The young drummer will be excited emotion, and ready to play songs of the greatest national pride."

CORN.

A stock always to hand. Also, cotton ready for shipment.
